Louis Gross, LaCoste stock farmer, was a business caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Gross is one farmer who is not worried over the delayed rains. While an extensive dry land farmer also, he has a large acreage of irrigated land in the Medina Irrigation district and what the drouth destroys on the dry land will be more than compensated for by enhancement in value of the products of the irrigated lands.

Rev. Father James Marsollier for-vice and the transfer comes as a reward for long and valuable service rendered. While the people regret the departure of Mr. Hurt and fam-

PERRY'S YE OLDE NEW ENG-LAND CHOIR.

The songs of four centuries will be heard on the First Day of the Rudolphe Chautauqua, when Perry's Ye Olde New England Choir will appear both afternoon and night.
This is a quartet of exceptional ability that specializes in the songs of the various periods of American history, and gives each song in the appropriate costumes. It is a rare treat for the present generation to hear the songs that interested, entertained and stirred the emotions of our forefathers, and the costumes correctly depicted, make them all the more attractive.

The four periods contributing the songs which this quartet will sing are as follows:

Puritan Period—1600 A. D.
In Ye Puritan Period, "Barbara Allen" attended Ye Olde New England Meeting House, and saw ye pastor hymne out ye hymne and listened to his sermon, "Stop! poor Sinner," Tobacco's but an Indian Weed!"

Colonial Period—1700 A. D.
In Ye Colonial Period "There was a Maid" who refused to take "Grandma's Advice" and danced "Ye Olde Minuet" with "Yanke Doodle" until her father drew "The Sword of Bunker Hill" and said "Forget-me-not!"

Abolitionist Period—1800 A. D.
We see "Nelly Gray" "Dreaming
the Happy Hours Away" while listening to the ticking of Grandfather's Clock; along comes "Cousin Jehediah" thinking of the past, when
"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground,"
"Way Down in Dixie," and as he sits
"in the Gloaming," he thinks of the days "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

Modern Period—1900 A. D.
The series is closed with a short period of present-day music, presented in modern costumes, showing the marked contrasts between the present and past. Perry's Choir is an unusually attractive Chautauqua attraction and every one is urged to hear it at the opening sessions of the Chautauqua.

MASONS CELEBRATE.

Members of the local lodge of Masons, their wives and a few invited guests united in celebrating George Washington's Birthday with an appropriate program at the Auditorium
Monday night.

Prof. W. N. Saathoff spoke briefly on "Washington—the Mason." He pointed out that while operative masonry has to do with the building
of material structures, Speculative Masonry has to do with the building
of human character. It was in obedience to the great principles of Masonry that Washington so shaped his character as to be a fit instrument in the hands of destiny to serve his country in the great dual roles of patriotic soldier defender and statesman counselor and guide.

Rev. A. M. Foster, who presided over the meeting, spoke feelingly of the great work the Masons are doing in Texas. The value of Masonic property has reached an enormous sum in Texas and the good work of caring for the orphans, the widows, the aged and the afflicted of the fraternity is beyond computation.

Variety was given to the program
by a number of beautiful vocal selections by Hondo talent, and the evening was enlivened throughout by instrumental numbers by Hondo's Orchestra.

Light refreshments of sandwiches,
cake, coffee and chocolate were served cafeteria style to the assemblage and was enjoyed by all.

The town and the fraternity is better for this little get-together gathering.

FLETCHERIZED FARM FACTS.

The type is set for March FARM-ING, and it will be off the press in a few days.

Besides the regular installment of our great story "Zen of the Y.
D.," being the love story of a real,
typical West Canadian Ranch girl,
and the other usual features, there are some outstanding articles for this month.

Commissioner George B. Terrell warns against too much cotton for 1925. Every cotton farmer should read it.

Mr. McGregor tells us how to advertise Texas to the world. Every man who wants to see Texas develop as she should should help circulate
this able article.

Col. R. R. Claridge will entertain and instruct in his snappy paragraphs.

And every serious-minded person
in this Jazzy age should read Father Vernimont's sermonettes, and join that devout man in his prayer for better living.

The housewife will find some handy recipes ready to her hand.

And the fourth installment in the school contest to see who gets the dictionary is worth any one's reading.

Besides the editor's usual verse and editorial paragraphs, he writes
another sequel to the Toby Hick's
New Year Resolution story. Read it and see the romance that can be woven around the commonplace
doings of a plain tenant farmer.

If not a regular reader of FARM-ING don't miss the March number.

It is sent a whole year with this paper for 50 cents, or you can get all the numbers—including the back ones—containing the story of "Zen of the Y. D.," by sending us 25 cents and joining our Story Club.

In the Shetland pony race, fostered by O. H. Miller, Hondo's land and insurance man, in which he individual-ly offered prizes, there were four entries. This was the closing event of the day's sports, and provoked a great deal of interest. In this event George Muennink, took first money, a $10 gold piece, Charlotte Miller took second prize, $5 in gold, and Tomerlin third prize, $2.50 in gold. Brew Miller also entered this event, but realizing that some one had to take the rear position he fell into that place and drove the winners across the winning line.

Altogether it was a great day of sport, and the large crowd seemed to thoroughly enjoy each event.

Today a matched race between "Silver Slipper," entered by Henry Schuehle, and "Never Win," by R. C. Bless, will put their speed against each other. This race is for a purse of $200.00, and will probably be the last race in the local course for sometime.

MRS TWOMEY DEAD.

Mrs. Johanna Twomey, the beloved wife of Maurice P. Twomey, died at their home in D'Hanis about 10 o'clock Sunday night, February 22, 1925, after an illness of over two years, during the last eighteen months of which she had been confined to her room. Her body was tenderly laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery Tuesday morning. Her pastor, Rev. Father Maas, officiated at the funeral service both at the home and at the cemetery.

Deceased was born in D'Hanis, Texas, January 30, 1862. She was the daughter of the late Richard and Mary Reily and was one of a family of nine children, and is survived by three brothers, Joseph and Henry Reily of Sabinal and Jacob Reily of Hondo, and five sisters, Mesdames A. G. Davenport of San Antonio, Joe Ney of Hondo, F. J. Carle, Louis Carle, and H. C. Rothe, all of D'Hanis.

On October 6, 1892, she was happily married to Mr. Maurice P. Twomey, a railroad man who came from Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 1889 and was employed at the time as agent at D'Hanis. They continued to make their home there in Mrs.

Twomey's native village. There were no children.

The funeral services were largely attended by people from far and near. All the business houses of the town and both the public and the parochial school closed during the funeral hour. Deceased had been a life-long consistent member of the Catholic Church and an active member of the Catholic Altar Society. This organization attend the funeral in a body, escorting the remains to the grave.

Thus the mortal career of this good woman closed fittingly with the beautiful funeral rites of the church she loved so well. And while her weary, pain-racked body rests in its peaceful grave, her sweet spirit has gone to dwell forever in the house of the heavenly Father she trusted so faithfully.

The BULL'S EYE
Editor and G. WILL
Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers. Ziegfeld Folies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

LOOKING at this Bull's picture here just reminds me of the Cattle Business, of which I am still in, in a small way.

Stock on the Exchange in Wall Street was never higher. Stock on a Ranch was never lower.

If a cattleman sold a Steer and they would let him weigh all the mortgages that was on the Steer with him, he would weigh 50 pounds heavier.

One Tenderloin Steak at a Hotel brings more than a Steer.

A quart of milk brings more than the Cow.

A Texas Long Horn brings $20 and one pair of Horn-rimmed glasses $25.

A Calf sells for $10 and its brains sell for $20.

The hide of a Cow brings $1 and one pair of shoes $18.

Two sacks of 'Bull' Durham is worth more than the Bull.

The only way to be in the Cattle business is with a picture of one.

Will Rogers
P. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

MORE OF EVERYTHING for a lot less money. That's the net of this 'Bull' Durham proposition. More flavor, more enjoyment and a lot more money left in the bankroll at the end of a week's smoking.

BALZEN-HELMKE WEDDING.

Last Wednesday afternoon a beautiful church wedding took place in Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Quibi. The bride and groom of the occasion were Mr. Harry H. Balzen of Sturm Hill and Miss Esther A. Helmke of Hondo. The church was handsomely decorated in white and pink by several lady friends of the bride. Miss Amanda Grell presided at the organ and played a wedding march when the bridal party entered the church and departed, to hold a reception in the vestibule of the church immediately after the marriage service at the altar. Messrs. Arthur and Walter Grell acted respectively as groomsman and best man while Miss Annie Marquis of San Antonio as bridesmaid and Miss Anna Balzen of Knippa as maid of honor and little Hilda Mumme was ring bearer, carrying the two wedding rings in a beautiful tulip. Promptly at three o'clock the bridal party met at the Lutheran parsonage and went in a procession, to the deep-toned music of the church bell, to the church, the bride, the bridesmaid and the maid of honor, led by the ring bearer, entering at the tower door while the pastor with the groom and his friends came in at the rear church door. At the altar both parties met. Messrs. Frank Boehle and Ralph Saathoff, the efficient ushers, saw to it that aside of the bridal party, their many relatives and friends, who had come to witness the impressive service and extend congratulations, were all comfortably seated. The service was opened by the singing of "I'll be with You" by Mrs. C. P. Haaskarl and Miss Amanda Grell. The pastor of the church, Rev. Haaskarl, thereupon delivered a timely address relative to the sacredness of the marriage estate. Following this the beautiful double ring service was read and the happy groom and bride were declared husband and wife. Immediately after an impromptu reception in the vestibule of the church, the bridal party and a number of relatives repaired to the home of the bride where an ice-cream and cake luncheon was served and general sociability was greatly enjoyed by all present. Toward night the newly wedded couple departed for an extended wedding trip to San Antonio, Fredericksburg and other points. Upon their return they will make their home with Mr. Fritz Balzen of Sturm Hill, the father of the groom. The groom is an industrious young man of good report and is well and favorably known in his home precinct. The bride is the accomplished youngest daughter of Mr. Fritz Helmke, who resides on a farm several miles east of Hondo. Some years ago she lost her mother and since then and up to this time has kept and managed the home of her father and thus and incidentally acquired early in life the knowledge and skill of properly keeping a house and home. Both the bride and the groom have many friends who all join the Anvil Herald in wishing them a long, joyous and prosperous journey through life.

JORDAN-BOHMFALK.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bohmfalk, at 6:00 o'clock Wednesday evening, February 18, 1925, when Miss Jannie Bohmfalk became the bride of Mr. Milton Jordan, of Art, Mason County, Texas, the Rev. Fritz Foerster, officiating.

The bride, the lovely daughter of our fellow towns people, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bohmfalk, is a native of this immediate section and has a host of friends who rejoice with her in becoming the bride of the man of her choice.

The groom is a prosperous young stock-farmer of Art, Mason County, Texas, and our people congratulate him on winning so worthy a mate for life's journey.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jordan and son, Frank, parents and brother of the groom, of Art, Mason County, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bickenbach of San Antonio, and Misses L. Heickmann and D. H. Heickmann of Somerset. These latter two were here on a visit to Grandma Heickmann, and took advantage of their presence here to attend the wedding.

Local friends who also were present at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Bohmfalk and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bohmfalk and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Bohmfalk and Rev. and Mrs. Fritz Foerster and family.

Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple left on a brief bridal visit to San Antonio and other points, after which they will go to Art, Mason County, Texas, where they will make their home.

That happiness and prosperity may attend their throughout life is the wish of all our people.

MRS. WESLEY LEINWEBER HONORED.

Mrs. F. J. Leinweber and Mrs. Alvin Leinweber entertained with a "shower" at the home of Mrs. Alvin Leinweber on Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Wesley Leinweber, a bride of last week.

After the guests had assembled the youthful bride was led into the living-room where a pink and gray color scheme had been prettily carried out in the adornment of the room and the chair prepared for the guest of honor, Mrs. Roland Chancey offered a toast to "The Bride," Mrs. T. C. Barnes "The Wife," and Mrs. F. S. Cockrell to "Marguerite Woods." After this Master Oreneth Fly, Jr., decided to "make hay while the sun shines" and, while industriously wielding his tiny rake in the destruction of the small hay stack which was found in a corner of the living-room, numerous packages containing pretty and useful gifts were found. These the little hay-maker placed in his small wheel-barrow and pushed to the honoree who opened them and passed them around for the inspection and admiration of the guests.

A delicious refreshment course of pink and gray brick ice-cream and cake was served to some eighty guests.

Tax Assessor and Mrs. L. E. Heath were San Antonio visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pichot and little son, Wm., Jr., of Houston, spent the week here visiting Mr. Pichot's sisters, Mrs. F. H. Schweers and Mrs. Robert Koch, in Hondo and other relatives in Medina County.

MILLER-BRITSCH.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, February 25, 1925, at 3 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, when Rev. Grueber, pastor of the church, pronounced the words which bound Mr. Dan Miller and Miss Edna Britsch "until death do them part."

To the strains of "Fairies Wedding march," played by Mrs. Charles Stiegler, the bridal party entered the church, which had been decorated in white and green, and took their places at the altar in the following order: Miss Aleen Britsch, cousin of the bride, in a girlish dress of pink charmeuse satin and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations, with Mr. Alvin Britsch, brother of the bride. Then came little Lorine Martin, ring bearer, who was dressed in pink and carried the ring on a pink cushion which matched her dress. And last came the bride, dressed in a suit of midnight blue Poiret twill with all accessories of brown, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations with Mr. Dan Miller, the groom. Rev. Grueber in his earnest and impressive manner, pronounced the words which made the happy couple man and wife. "Meditation, One Heart and One Soul," was softly rendered during the ceremony.

The happy couple left for a short honeymoon to points east. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Britsch and the groom is the son of Mrs. G. E. Miller, and is a promising young mechanic.

This paper joins in congratulations and best wishes to the happy pair.

BIG BARN DESTROYED.

Fire about 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon destroyed the big barn on Mrs. Henry Ney's farm, some four miles west of town. Besides the building the contents, consisting of some 1,100 bushels of corn, and between four and five tons of cottonseed and a couple of sets of harness also were destroyed.

The Hondo Fire Company went to the scene of the fire both the chemical and pumper taking part in the effort to extinguish the fire and right well did they acquit themselves, considering the conditions. As luck would have it, both the tank at the Ney farm, and the one at the Leinweber place were full of water, furnishing practically enough to extinguish the fire. As another means of smothering the fire plows were set to work to loosen up the ground and a shovel crew threw a lot of soil on the burning corn and cottonseed.

The barn valued at approximately $2,600.00 was of course, the property of Mrs. Ney, as well as about 200 bushels of the corn. The remainder of the corn estimated at around 900 bushels, and the cottonseed was the property of Fancha Esparza, a tenant on the farm. The origin of the fire is unknown, the blaze having gained considerable headway before being discovered.

While the contents of the barn, particularly the corn, is not a total loss, it is badly damaged. Perhaps two-thirds of it can be utilized as feed for hogs and other stock.

As far as we are advised the only insurance carried was only on the building—some $300—in the Castrolville Mutual Fire Association.

BEEF CALF SHOW.

The Baby Beef Calves being fed by the Club boys of edina, Bexar, Frio, Bee and Gillespie Counties will be shown and judged for prizes at the Stockyards in San Antonio Tuesday afternoon, March 2nd.

The boys are to have the calves at the stockyards by 8 o'clock Monday morning. The business men of San Antonio have given $500 for prizes and the National Hereford Breeders Association will add a good amount to this. There will be about 40 calves shown there.

The calves will stay in San Antonio until Thursday, then they will go to Fort Worth to the Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show, where they will be shown against calves from all over the State. After the show the packing houses will bid for them. Some of the calves are weighing 1100 pounds at 15 months of age.

BRIDAL SHOWER.

A bridal shower was given Miss Edna Britsch, a bride of the month, at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Miller on the evening of February 11th. The room was tastefully decorated in spotless white. When all was in readiness and the bride seated on her purple and white throne, little Elma Westfall, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westfall, drew into the room a little wagon loaded to its capacity with varied and useful presents for the bride-to-be.

Mrs. Hadel Chandler and Misses Edna and Alma Britsch were in charge of the arrangements and acted as hostesses to the following guests: Mesdames George Heyen, L. H. Heyen, John Britsch, Hy. Britsch, G. E. Grueber, Frank Westfall, Arnold Rothe, Chas. Schuehle, C. J. Bless, A. C. Thallman, Ernest Britsch, Ben. Oefinger, George Bendele, Sr., Quinn Ney; Misses Emma Britsch, Thelma Decker and Freda Balzen and Mrs. Paul Doerr and Mrs. G. E. Miller.

Refreshments of cake, chocolate and coffee were served, dainty spring violets being the plate favors.

WITH THE DRILLERS.

The Mid-Kansas Oil Company this week unloaded three cars load of drilling equipment at Dunlay and are rushing work on getting it in place on the Haby farm, some three miles South of the town. This, we understand, is to be a deep test, and is the first appearance in this territory of one of the major companies, and everyone is hoping that its advent is but the forerunner of other big companies. The operations of the Mid-Kansas will be watched with interest and everyone trusts its effort will be crowned with great success.

MARRIED.

Mr. Lucian Ward and Miss Artie Berry, two popular young people of the Yancey community, were married at 3:30 o'clock p. m. Sunday, February 22, 1925, at the Baptist Parsonage of this place. Rev. W. C. Brown, Pastor of the local Baptist Church, officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The young people will make their home near Yancey where the groom is in the stock-farming business.

This paper joins in the usual felicitations to this happy young couple.

Night Coughing—How to Stop It

Night coughing which, through loss of valuable sleep, often makes you feel utterly worn-out and useless during the day, and by quickly weakening the system lays you open to the most dangerous infections, can now be promptly checked by a very simple treatment. People who have hardly been able to rest on account of coughing spells have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often after the very first trial.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals the soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which is the real cause of the cough. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the cough goes in a very short time.

The prescription contains no opiates or harmful drugs. Excellent for children as well as grown-ups. For coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, sore throat, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis and bronchial asthma. At all good druggists. Ask for
